3) Pledge of Allegiance

4) Presentations/Special Guests

Mayor Kessler spoke about the important role the members of our police department play in our community.

- a) Bexley Police Department Swearing In Ceremony for Officer Iorio
- b) Bexley Police Department Swearing In Ceremony for Lieutenant Holdren, Lieutenant Kenefick, and Lieutenant Overly
- c) Bexley Police Department Swearing In Ceremony for Deputy Chief Gough

Mayor Kessler and Chief Lewis facilitated the swearing in ceremony for the officer, lieutenants, and deputy chief and photographs were taken.

5) Public Comments (Speaker Slip Required)

None.

6) President's Report

Mr. Markham acknowledged Sam Metcalf's service to the City and complimented Ms. Robinson on an excellent strategic retreat for council. Mr. Markham also thanked Chief Lewis for presenting at the retreat and complimented him on his service.

Mr. Markham then acknowledged the conflict in Ukraine and the tragic casualties of this war. Mr. Markham spoke about the dangers of giving too much power to one individual and the need for thoughtful government and checks and balances.

Mr. Markham also spoke about the importance of diversity and stated this was discussed at the Council strategic retreat. He then complimented our Council Members who all work in support of this goal and these values.

7) City Attorney Report

Mr. Fishel spoke about the budget year at the Statehouse. Mr. Fishel mentioned that there are some items under consideration at the Statehouse that would not be favorable to local governments and encouraged everyone to be attentive and that he'd continue to report on these developments.

8) Auditor's Report

No report.

9) Administrative Update

a) Police Department Update – Chief Gary D. Lewis, Jr.

Chief Lewis had nothing to add to his report. Ms. Saad asked about what the community can do to reduce the numbers on car thefts, and Chief Lewis shared some tips for preventing this and plans to look at partnering with some organizations to potentially provide resources for prevention to Kia owners in the community. Ms. Lampke asked for an update on recruiting on filling vacancies, and Chief Lewis provided an update on the physical fitness test with fifteen potential young candidates.

b) Service Update – Andy Bashore

City Council Meeting Minutes

Tuesday, February 21, 2023

Mr. Bashore had nothing to add to his report but welcomed questions. Ms. Saad asked for additional information on the safety project at Capital, and Mr. Bashore provided some information on this. Ms. Robinson asked about the presence of orange flags at Broad and Cassingham, and this is a safety resource for students crossing. Chief Lewis added that this is a follow up to a recent meeting with the PTO. Mr. Kessler complimented the great work the Service Department is doing on the Schneider Park trail.

c) Finance Department Update – Beecher Hale

Mr. Hale highlighted income tax and talked about the reasons for the large expenditures over revenues in early year, which is not concerning and is due to timing of planned transfers.

d) Recreation Department Update – Mike Price

Mr. Price reminded everyone there will be a hiring event for summer employment through the Recreation Department and encouraged interested residents 14 and older to look into this. Mr. Klingler asked a question about the pool memberships and asked if the numbers are up and Mr. Price explained that it's challenging to compare because it's a different structure for sales. Ms. Saad also mentioned that the Recreation Board just approved $40 pool memberships for seniors. Ms. Lampke asked a question about the recruitment day and communication to schools, which Mr. Price answered.

e) Mayor's Update

Mr. Kessler provided some of the highlights of his report, highlighting some of the upcoming event including the New Resident Welcome and the State of the Community address. Mr. Kessler read the joint statement created with Council President Markham.
