Dear City Council,

I have been a Bexley resident since 1999. I travel Drexel Ave. often at different hours of the day. I never exceed the 35 mph speed limit. I don't recall seeing, in all that time, very many pedestrians crossing Drexel, so I wasn't in favor of installing the islands. I actually find them to be somewhat of a nuisance, especially if you want to turn north on Drexel from Bryden Road.

I believe that a compromise would be in order here. I propose 30 mph as a reasonable speed.

Thank you,

Patricia D. Gold
