The victim states that on May 21, 2021 an unauthorized purchase was made using his Chase Visa card to buy furniture at Ashley Furniture. At that time he called his credit card company and the card was cancelled and a new card was issued to him. The victim further states that on July 17, 2023 he received a letter from Clear Recovery Inc., a debt collection agency, stating that Ashley Furniture had contacted them to collect on the purchase (fraudulent charge). The victim states that he was told a police report is required in order to clear the matter.
